

A turn-over submission mechanism for wide foil formula electric capacity aluminium foil nail is rolled up includes: a frame fixedly installed with a vertically arranged working face; the turnover device is provided with a first material guide wheel and a second material guide wheel which are arranged on the working surface, the axial directions of the first material guide wheel and the ...

The utility model provides a ox horn type capacitor nail roll structure with high safety factor, which comprises a first electrolytic paper layer, a first negative aluminum foil, a second electrolytic paper layer, a first positive aluminum foil, a third electrolytic paper layer, a second negative aluminum foil, a fourth electrolytic paper layer and a second positive aluminum foil, wherein the ...

The PSMA Capacitor Technical Committee will be working to organize a great Workshop at APEC 2024 with a full agenda of exciting and interesting topics by outstanding Presenters and ...

The utility model relates to an aluminium electrolytic capacitor nail is rolled up equipment negative pole riveting department and is increased and rivet negative pole paper tinsel device solves current aluminium electrolytic capacitor's negative pole and draws a riveting department and form the problem that heavy current strikes and easily to product production breakdown inefficacy.
